HISTORIC VENUE LOCATION

A HISTORIC EVENT EXPERIENCE

48 Wall Street provides a unique and historical setting to host your next corporate event or milestone celebration.

Located in the heart of the Financial District, the 48 Wall Street event space occupies three floors of the former Bank of New York & Trust Company Building. The current structure is the third to be erected on the same plot. The cornerstone was laid on January 12, 1928, the 171st birthday of the bank's founder, Alexander Hamilton.

The Grand Mezzanine Banking Hall has retained much of its original architectural detail and boasts 30-foot ceilings, Palladian windows, and an elaborate entrance leading to a grand marble staircase. The London & Amsterdam Auditorium, on the concourse level, is also available for lectures and conferences that can be divided into six smaller rooms for breakout sessions.

48 Wall Street was added to the National Register of Historic Places (NRHP) in 2003.

WALL STREET'S BEST KEPT SECRET

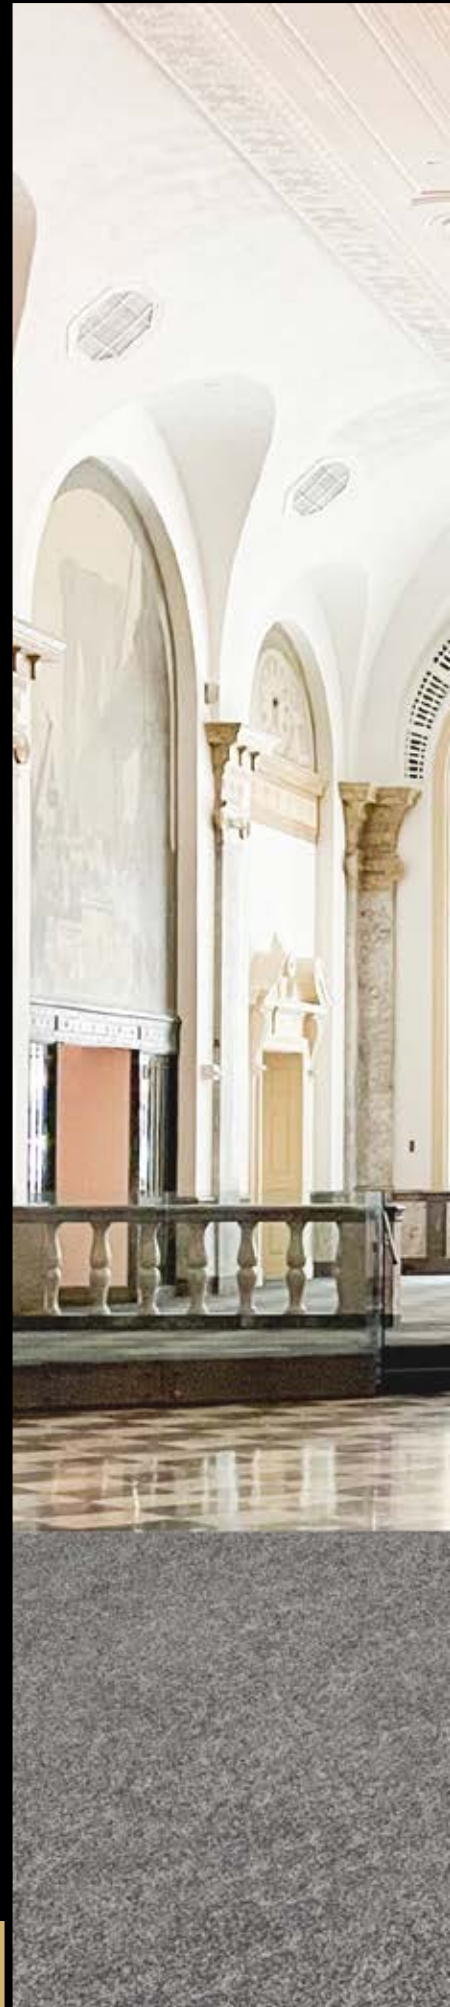

48 Wall Street hosts some of the most impressive corporate events and milestone celebrations on Wall Street. Each year our global clientele from around the world choose 48 Wall Street as their preferred venue locations.

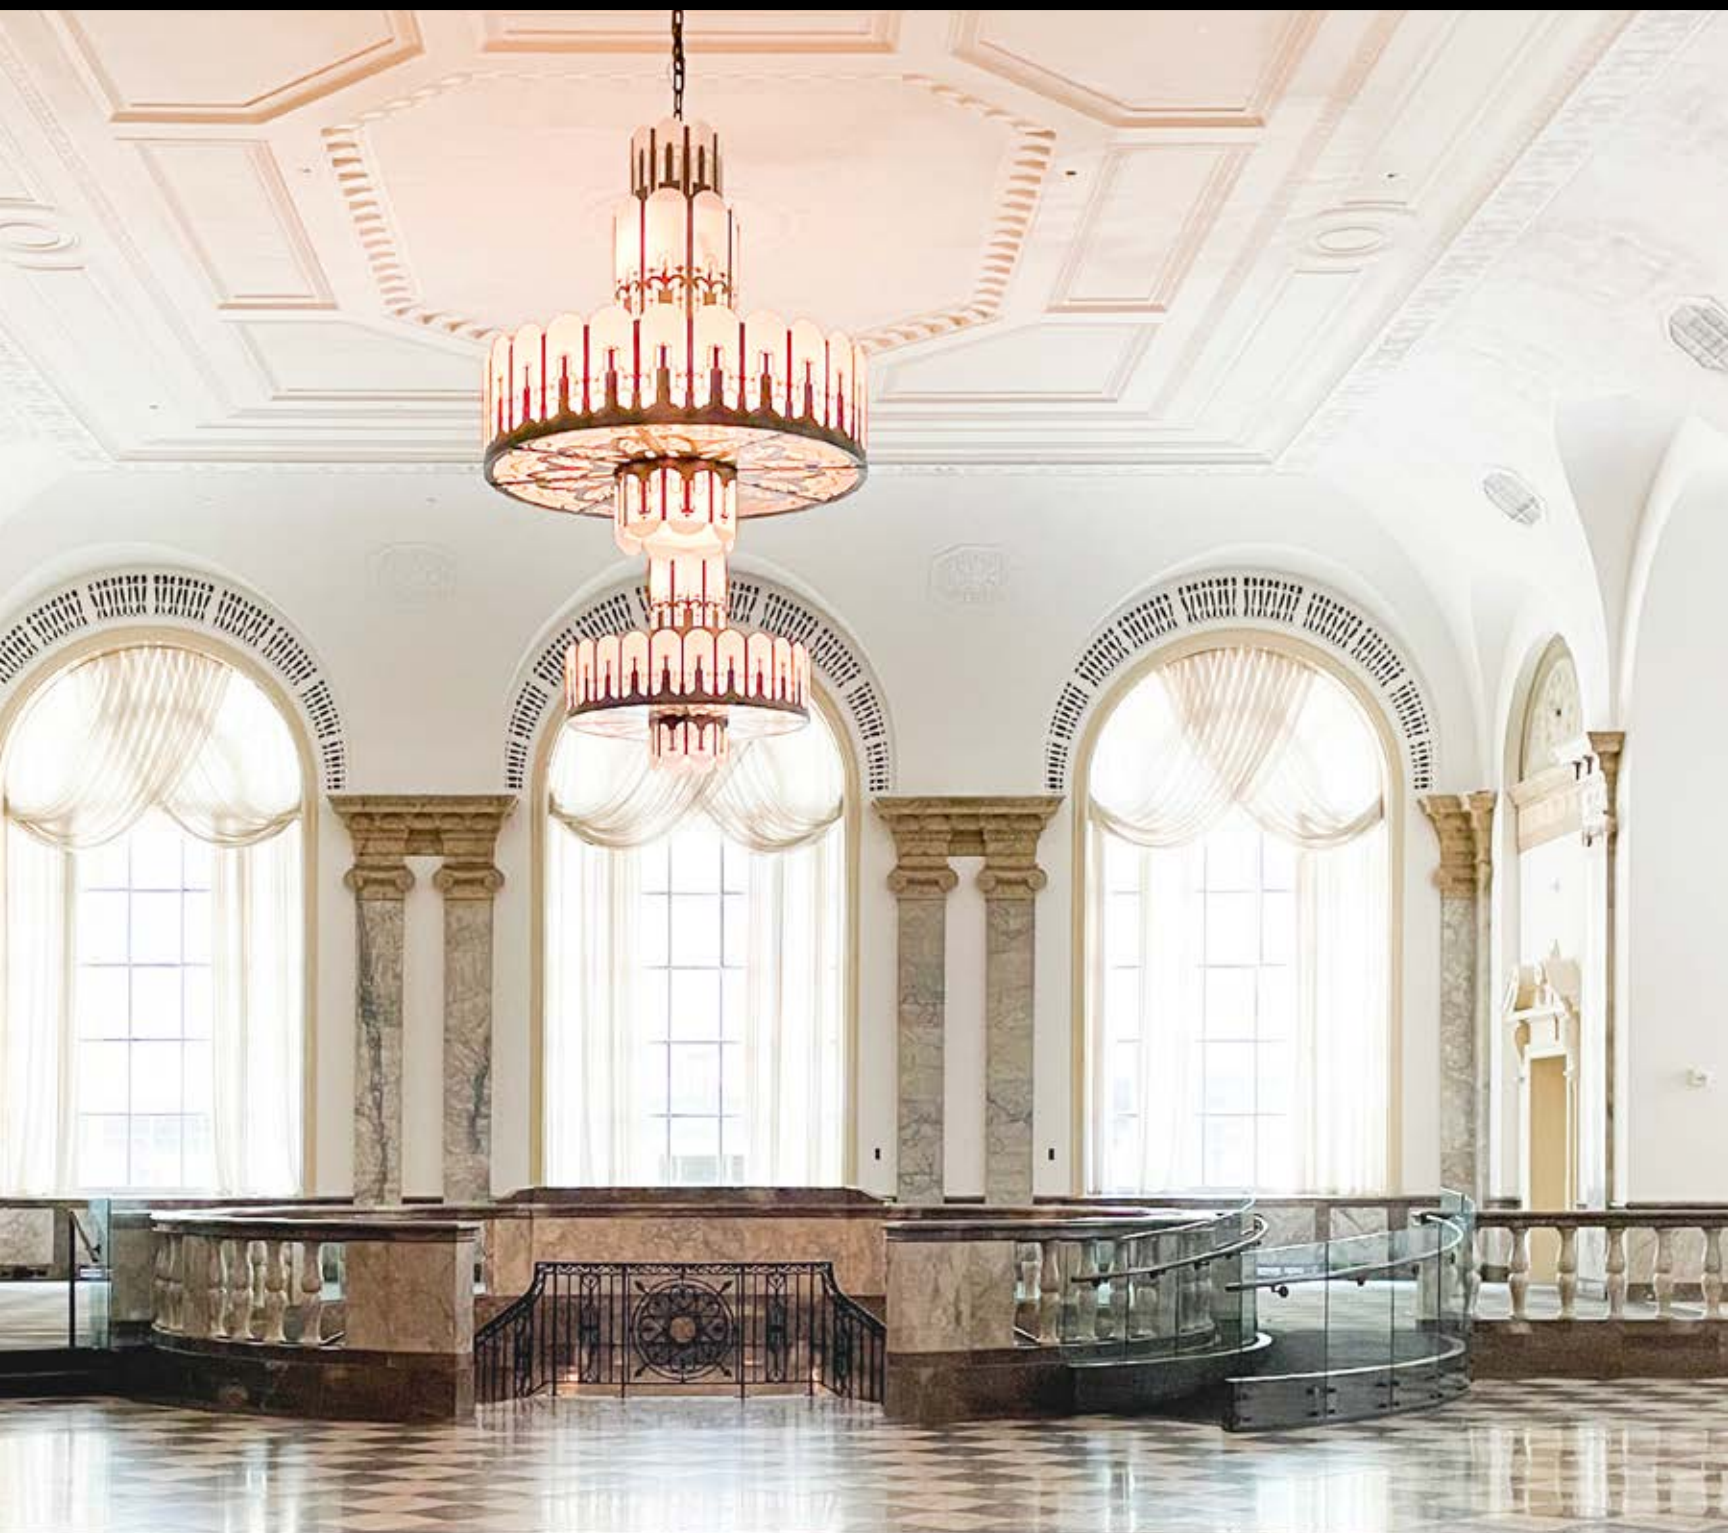

THE GRAND MEZZANINE BANKING HALL

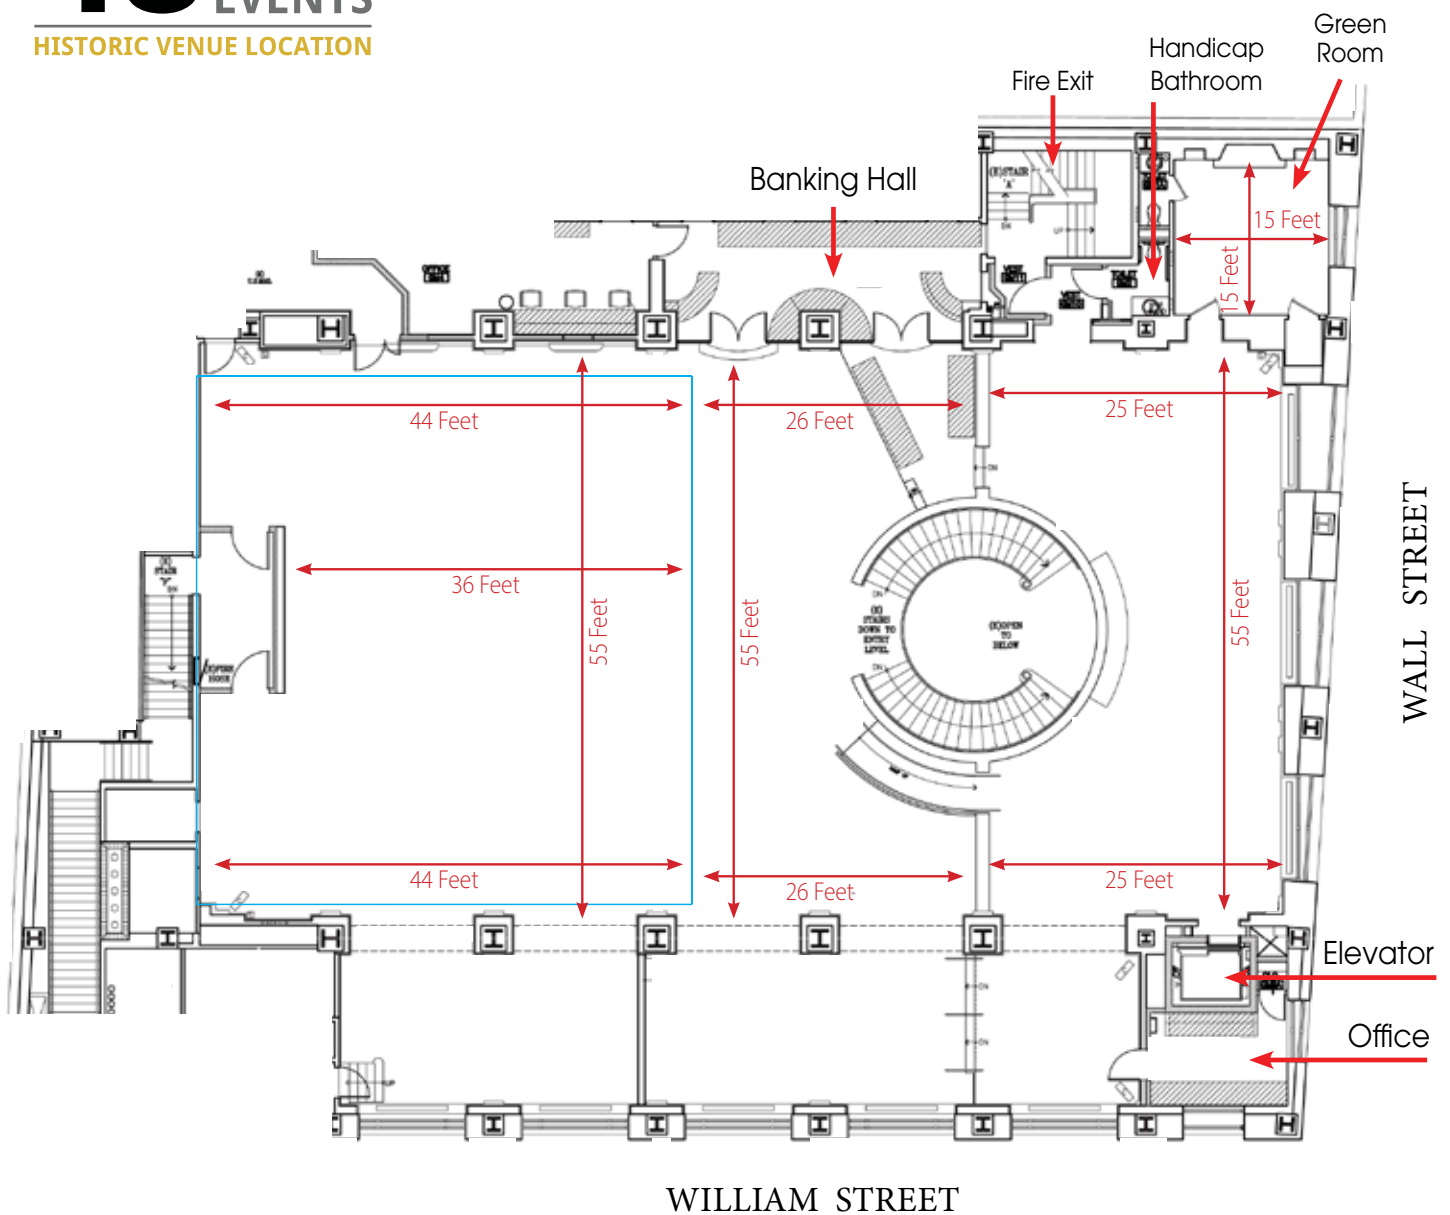

When entering 48 Wall Street you are greeted by a grand marble staircase. Let your eyes gravitate upward toward the impeccably crafted ceiling and oversized chandeliers. This is the Grand Mezzanine Banking Hall. This space has retained much of its original 1920's architectural detail; from the 30-foot ceilings to its beautiful Palladian windows. The Banking Hall can host and accommodate a variety of events, which include seated dinners for 375 guests or a cocktail reception for 500 guests. The space can also be divided to your liking to create a more intimate setting for smaller events and meetings.
